

GMI 7

Where are we?

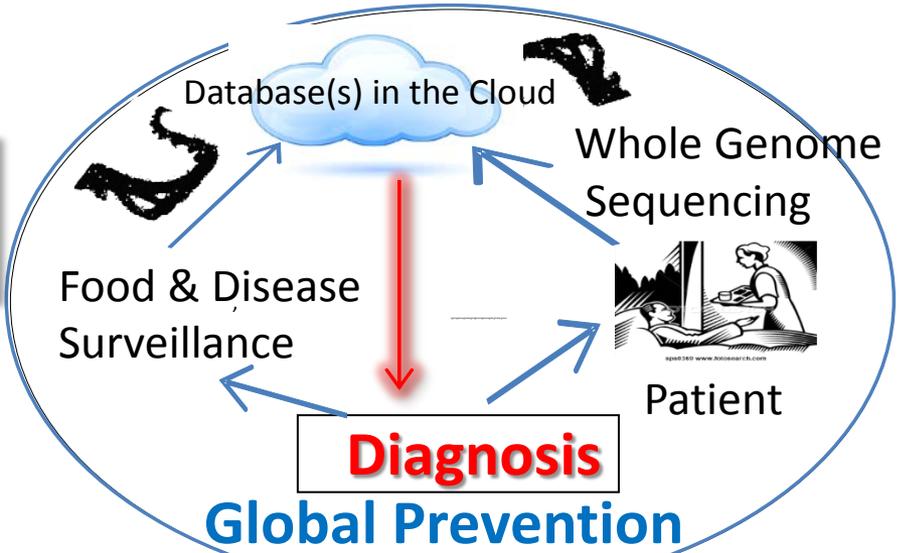

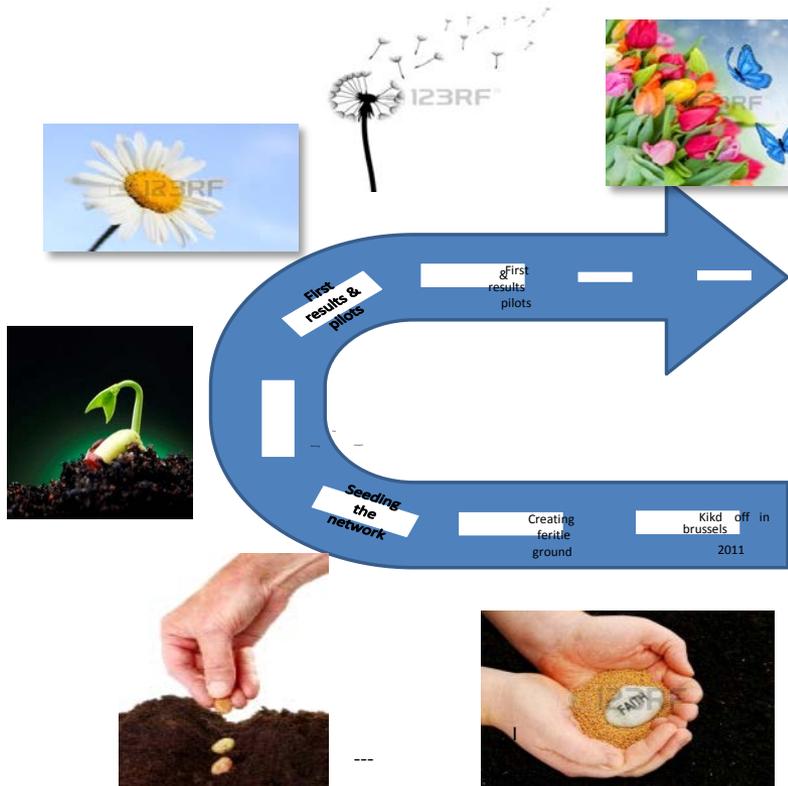

Global Microbial Identifier

11-12 September 2014, York, UK

Describing Landscape Creating Roadmap

GMI – The idea

GMI achievements

NEWSLETTERS FROM THE GMI STEERING COMMITTEE

All

02 September 2014

198 people from 34 countries will be participating in the GMI7 Meeting at FERA in York, England 11-12...

- Membership with the possibility to choose working group participation
- Followers can subscribe to newsletters via the GMI webpage
- Charter and legal structure accepted and published

GMI achievements

- Communication tools in place – website, newsletter, twitter, Wikipedia, SharePoint
- Initiatives to seek funding – application to Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation
- First flow of data into GMI repository – NCBI/EBI

GMI achievements

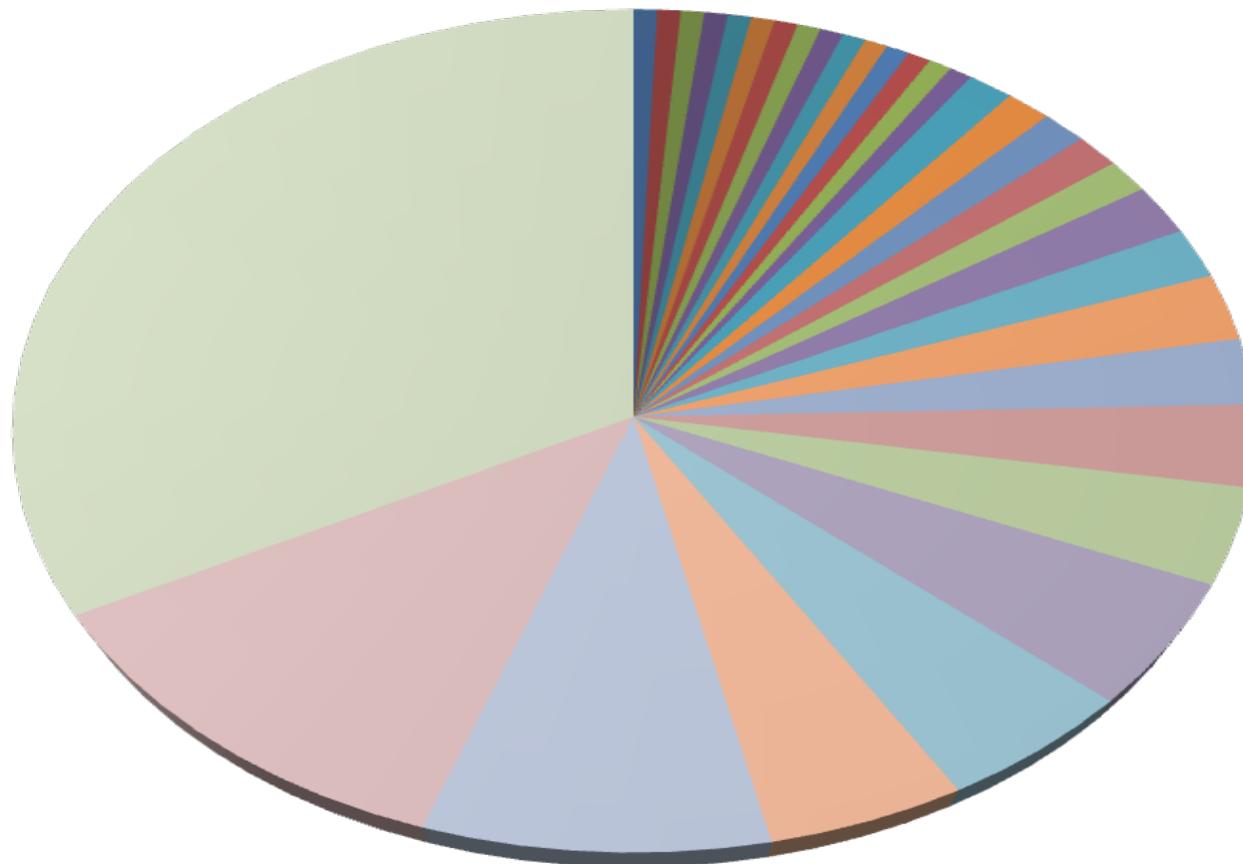

- Discussion papers about legal aspects within GMI and about free exchange of genomic data
- US, UK, Mexico and Denmark sharing data via upload to public databases
- Species and strain characterisation running for L. monocytogenes and some salmonella strains
- Launch of GMI Pilot Test survey

GMI achievements

Membership

32 Countries represented

- Brazil 1
- Cameroun 1
- Chile 1
- India 1
- Iran 1
- Ireland 1
- Israel 1
- Japan 1
- Kenya 1
- Luxembourg 1
- Nigeria 1
- Thailand 1
- Tunisia 1
- Finland 1
- Greece 1
- Germany 2
- Malaysia 2
- Norway 2
- Poland 2
- Sweden 2
- Belgium 3
- France 3
- Australia 4
- Switzerland 4
- China 5
- Italy 6
- Canada 8
- Spain 8
- The Netherlands 8
- United Kingdom 14
- Danmark 19
- United States 52

GMI achievements

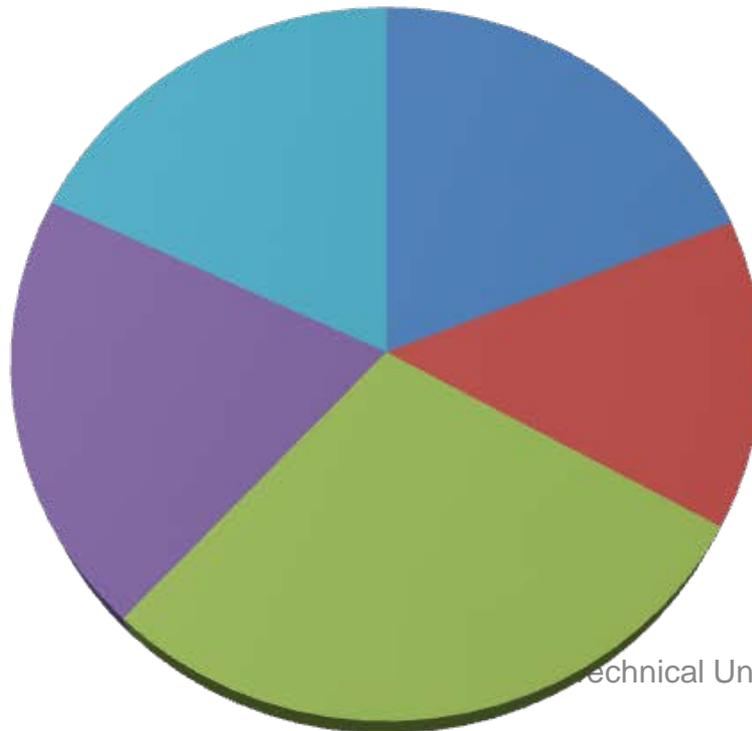

Working Groups

159 participants divided into WGs
in percentages

(possible to sign up for more than 1 WG)

- WG 1 - 19%
- WG 2 - 14%
- WG 3 - 29%
- WG 4 - 20%
- WG 5 - 18%